TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

ROHTAK, APRIL 15
The clamping of night curfew and closure of classes I to VIII has hit private as well as government schools in the district as parents have stopped depositing the fees of their wards, fearing a complete lockdown in coming days.

Consequently, the schools have recorded a decline of more than 95% in fee submission after the imposition of fresh curbs. The district has over 450 private schools at present.

"Around 100 parents were daily depositing fees of their wards before the closure of schools on April 9. The development reduced the number to 20 but the night curfew has hit the fee submission process badly. Now, merely four-five parents deposit the fees daily and it won't last long as they are apprehen-

Meanwhile, Ravinder Nandlal, president, Haryana Private School Sangh, said the trend was almost similar in every district of the state. "After the imposition of night curfew, parents are neither depositing the fees nor demanding school-leaving certificates of their wards. We don't know what they are thinking but the back-to-back orders for the closure of schools up to Class VIII and the night curfew have completely broken the backbone of private schools," said Nandal.

Anil Kaushik, president, Progressive Private School Owners' Association, said parents had categorically refused to pay the fees for online classes, forcing them to contemplate over relieving the teachers and other staffers of the schools, which were already reeling under a financial crisis.

CHANDIGARH, APRIL 15

Haryana Co-operation Minister Dr Banwari Lal said because of the increasing demand for HAFED products among the consumers, sales at Hafed outlets in the state are increasing and overall sales of Hafed products reached Rs 10 lakh per day on April 12 and April 13.

From October to December 2020, the average sale of Rs 3.71 lakh per day was recorded. He said through various strategic steps, efforts have been made to increase the sales in the Hafed outlets.

He said inspired by the increase in the sales of existing small outlets, Hafed had decided to open a sale outlet called 'Hafed Bazaar' of about 1,000 sq ft area. At least one such bazaar will be opened in all district headquarters. He said its interior design and ambience would be modern and attractive.—TNS

Issuing orders in this regard, Deputy Commissioner Yash Garg said the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare had issued guidelines for the isolation of the confirmed cases in private facilities. There are instances where people don't have the requisite space at home and may opt for facilities such as hotels, guest houses etc. This is likely to reduce the pressure on the family, give comfort to the person and protect the family members and the immediate neighbourhood.

"Whereas, it is necessary that paid isolation facilities may be notified for confirmed Covid-19 cases having mild and very mild symptoms. Now, therefore, Gurugram hereby notified 12 hotels and five hospitals as self-paid/govt paid isolation facilities," read his orders.

According to the Health Department, these isolation facilities had a total of 577 beds and around 20 per cent were already full. They have different packages and the room rent is between Rs 1,200 and Rs 3,500.

"As per the guidelines, we have started the facility of isolation in private hotels. Five government-paid and 13 self-paid isolation centres are set up in the district. We have also issued strict guidelines on who should be admitted to hospitals. We have asked them not to give beds to mild or asymptomatic patients", said CMO Dr Virender Yadav.

The move has, meanwhile, led various resident associations accuse the administration of putting them to risk by providing business to hotels.

Farmer gets ₹121 claim for crop loss

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

HISAR, APRIL 15
A farmer, Ravinder Singh, of Sarsana village paid Rs 6,600 as insurance premium for his cotton crop on four acres under the PMFBY during kharif season last year.

The crop was damaged due to whitefly attack and he managed to garner only 14 quin-tals from the four acres. But he was taken aback when he got the message that he has been given a claim of Rs 121 for the crop damage.

Similarly, a number of farmers complained to the DC that they too have got paltry sums of Rs 40 to Rs 135 per acre as claim by the insurance firm.

Farmers led by Kisan Sabha district president Shamsher Singh Nambardar today submitted a memorandum to the DC seeking adequate compensation for the crop loss.

Nambardar said the insurance firm had given the claim on the basis of crop cutting experiments (CCEs), which were carried out at the time of harvest of the crop. Deputy director, agriculture, Vinod Kumar Phogat, however, said the firm gives claim on the basis of losses either due to localised calamity or the CCEs, whichever was higher.

HIGH TIME TO GET SERIOUS ABOUT COVID PROTOCOL

THE state government has ordered new night curfew timings to control the Covid surge, but it is the chronic violators who must be reined in on 24x7 basis. Intriguingly, the enforcement agencies concerned don't appear to be serious enough as may be evident by no police patrolling in market or residential areas to ensure the compliance of Covid norms at least in Panchkula district. Perhaps, one of the grey areas happens to be morning walkers, several of whom can be seen moving without mask. Needless to say, the lackadaisical attitude towards the strict observance of various Covid preventive measures must be sternly dealt with.

NO END TO MONKEY MENACE

IT is a matter of grave concern that the monkey population is increasing considerably in the state, leading to the rise in attacks on public, especially children. However, the Haryana Government is taking good steps with which the population of monkeys may be controlled. A wildlife census will be conducted from April 20 to 27 to contain the population of monkeys and hence reduce the attacks. SUBHASH C TANEJA, GURUGRAM

GOVT APATHY BEHIND GLUT IN MANDIS

EVEN after precise and elaborate procurement arrangements made by the government in advance, mandis are still flooded and have no further space to unload the wheat produce. The reasons could be many, but the fact for this utter negligence is the 'lackadaisical' attitude of government agencies. They have no interest and intention to handle the crisis. HASSLE-FREE MUTATION OF PROPERTY

A large number of owners who purchased property under the municipal area without mutation about 25 years ago or more are now facing a lot of difficulties in order to sell it as required by the registering authority viz. the tehsildar/joint sub-registrar. The government should either exempt such owners from providing mutation or allow the sale deeds of the property without mutation being old ones so that they may be protected from undue harassment at various levels.
